A QUEEN AND HER COUNTRY

The 60-year reign of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II has paralleled Canada's development as a modern, diverse country. Through her numerous visits, she has kept alive our heritage and traditions. This exhibition takes a chronological approach to its subject matter through four main periods of the Queen's tours of Canada, including key historical events in which she took part.

AS PRESENTED AT THE CANADIAN MUSEUM OF HISTORY, 2012

CONTENT

- Approximately 60 modestly sized artifacts, commemorative in nature, marking the Queen's various visits and events in which she participated, with a strong Canadian focus and/or connection;
- Abundant photographs that create a visual panorama of the Queen's presence in Canada;
- An audiovisual presentation depicting the Queen's relationship with Canada and Canadians' relationship with their Queen;
- An interactive game inviting visitors to test their knowledge about protocol in an engaging and fun way;

- Maps of Canada illustrating the numerous places where the Queen has been through the 60 years of her reign and her 23 tours;
- A kiosk where visitors will be invited to share memories about the Queen's visits in Canada, and to discover other visitors' testimonies.
