Searching the Military History Research Centre’s Online Catalogue

Visitors to the Canadian War Museum’s website can access the collections of the Military History Research Centre (the textual archives, the image archives and the library) via our online catalogue, Gesica.

- Access the Canadian War Museum’s website at www.warmuseum.ca
- Select Research Centre from the left hand column.
- Select Online Catalogue
- Select Gesica and then the language that you wish to search in.

You can continue to narrow the criteria of your search. For example, you may wish to select ‘Archives’ and search only for ‘Sound Recordings’ or you may wish to select ‘Library’ and search only for ‘Technical Manuals’.

In each case the final search screen allows you to enter a keyword for the name/author, title, subject, etc.
The vertical bar on the left hand side of the screen outlines other options you may find useful. For example, you may wish to select ‘Advanced Search’ in order to perform a Boolean type search.
Once you have entered a keyword and clicked on ‘Submit Search’ you will get a results screen similar to this:
