

STAMP FIND

Reflecting the world in which we live, stamps give us a glimpse into our country's achievements, as well as important moments in history. Stamps celebrate our artists and athletes; they showcase our heritage and highlight Canadian accomplishments.

Explore the Canadian Stamp Collection, and discover some of Canada's best-known musical artists.

Look for the missing word or name on a postage stamp to complete the crossword puzzle.

HINT: Look at the yellow (culture) line between the years 2006 and 2014.

- 1 Beau _____
This 1970s Montreal rock band was known for its unique harmonies and lyrics about daily life, and was popular in both Quebec and France.
- 2 Édith _____
This artist has been described as the "mother of Acadian music."
- 3 Robert _____
He was the first Quebec singer-songwriter to use an electric guitar in his songs, and one of the first to sing in French-Canadian slang.
- 4 The _____ Hip
Around 11.7 million Canadians tuned in to watch Gord Downie perform his last concert with this band in 2016.
- 5 Ginette _____
At the age of 36, she was the youngest Quebec recording artist ever to receive the Order of Canada.
- 6 Anne _____
She was the first Canadian female solo singer to reach #1 on the U.S. charts.
- 7 Paul _____
This Ottawa-born singer-songwriter emerged in the 1950s to become one of North America's first teen idols.
- 8 Robbie _____
Known for his unique guitar-playing, his songs ushered in an era of classic blues-rock and influenced numerous musicians.
- 9 Canadian _____
Since the 1780s, extraordinary Canadian musical and theatrical talent has awed audiences across the country and made its way around the world.
- 10 k.d. _____
This boundary-pushing artist from Alberta was propelled to fame in the 1990s with her breakout album, Ingénue.
- 11 Shania _____
This artist adopted the name "Shania" at age 24. Said to be Ojibwa for "on my way," the name reflected her stepfather's heritage.

- Answers:
1. Beau Dommage
 2. Edith Butler
 3. Robert Charlebois
 4. The Tragically Hip
 5. Ginette Reno
 6. Anne Murray
 7. Paul Anka
 8. Robbie Robertson
 9. Canadian Opera
 10. k.d. Lang
 11. Shania Twain

Once you have completed the crossword puzzle, the letters in the shaded boxes will reveal the answer to the question below.

Who was the first living person, other than a reigning monarch, to appear on a Canada Post stamp?

___ S ___ ___ P ___ T ___ ___ O ___