Annual Report on Administration of the Privacy Act—
2021–2022
Canadian Museum of History

Introduction

The Canadian Museum of History (CMH) submits an Annual Report on its administration of the Privacy Act (the “Act”) to Parliament each year, which is laid before each House of Parliament in accordance with Section 72 of the Act. This report covers the 2021–2022 fiscal year, with a reporting period of April 1, 2021 to March 31, 2022.

The purpose of the Privacy Act is to protect the privacy of individuals with respect to personal information held about them by government institutions, and to provide individuals with the right of access to that information.

In accordance with Treasury Board of Canada Secretariat (TBS) requirements, this report provides an overview of CMH activities in the administration of its responsibilities under the Privacy Act.

Mandate

The CMH is a federal Crown corporation responsible for two national museums: the Canadian Museum of History and the Canadian War Museum. The mandate of the CMH is to enhance Canadians’ knowledge, understanding and appreciation of events, experiences, people and objects that reflect and have shaped Canada’s history and identity, while also enhancing their awareness of world history and cultures.

Access to Information and Privacy Office

The Access to Information and Privacy (ATIP) office at the CMH is the focal point for access to information and privacy matters, and is responsible for the institution’s effective administration of the Privacy Act. The ATIP office is accountable for developing and implementing effective policies, guidelines, systems and procedures to ensure that the CMH fulfills its privacy-related obligations.

The ATIP Office consists of the Director, Policy and Intergovernmental Relations, Regulatory Affairs and the ATIP and Integrity Officer. A part-time consultant was retained during the reporting period to develop privacy-related policy instruments.

Delegation Order

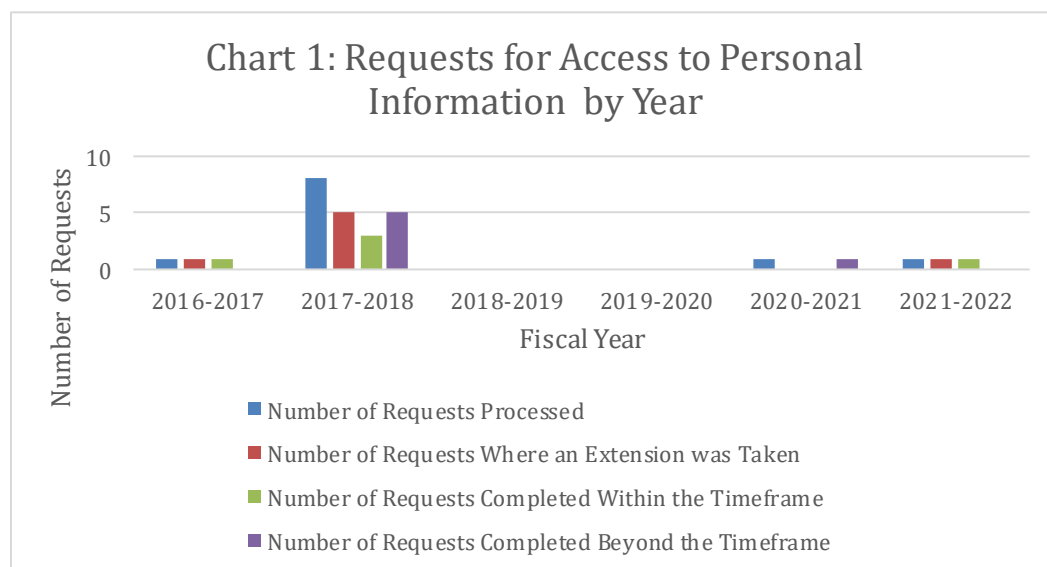

In accordance with Section 73(1) of the Privacy Act, the President and Chief Executive Officer (CEO), as head of the CMH, has delegated the powers, duties and functions for the administration of the Act to the Vice-President, Corporate Strategy and Government Affairs. The signed and dated Delegation Order is provided as Appendix A of this report.

Highlights of the Privacy Act Statistical Report

Throughout the pandemic, information and privacy staff at the Canadian Museum of History and Canadian War Museum had limited access onsite access for the processing of paper records. Beyond this restriction, staff at both Museums were not affected by COVID-19 in carrying out their responsibilities under the Privacy Act.

One request for access to personal information was received by the CMH during the reporting period. The request was extended for 30 days under Section 15(a)(i) of the Privacy Act. However, this request was closed as “abandoned” within 30 days of its receipt. As a result, 100% of requests were completed within legislated timelines.

At the same time, 0% of requests received in 2021–2022 were closed with a status of “all disclosed” or “disclosed in part.” The CMH did not carry over any requests from previous years. In addition, the CMH is not the subject of any outstanding complaints to the Office of the Privacy Commissioner of Canada. No consultations were received from other organizations. As noted in Chart 1 below, this trend is consistent with the low volumes experienced during previous reporting periods, with the exception of 2017–2018.

Further information can be found in the statistical report and the supplemental statistical report on the Act for the 2021–2022 fiscal year, provided as Appendix B and Appendix C of this report. In addition, you can learn more about the process of making a request for personal information by consulting the CMH’s website:

<https://www.historymuseum.ca/about/the-corporation/corporate-reports/access-information-privacy/>

Training and Awareness

No formal training sessions on the Act were held this fiscal year, due to a realignment of priorities and resource challenges.

The ATIP office remains responsible for providing education and training activities. In addition, the ATIP office provides ongoing advice to employees, to ensure fulfillment of the CMH's privacy-related obligations.

Policies, Guidelines, Procedures and Initiatives

The CMH did not implement any new policies, guidelines, procedures or initiatives during the reporting period. However, related sections of the existing Board of Trustees Manual were updated.

Complaints, Investigations and Audits

The Privacy Act provides a system of review to help ensure that government institutions comply with their obligations. Under this system of review, an individual has the right to file a complaint with the Privacy Commissioner of Canada, concerning a government institution's privacy practices. The Commissioner will investigate the matter on behalf of the individual. After the complaint has been investigated, the Commissioner will issue a finding on the matter.

The CMH received no complaints during the reporting period, and no investigations were carried out. In addition, no audits regarding CMH obligations under the Privacy Act were undertaken during the reporting period.

Monitoring Compliance

During the processing of any request received under the Privacy Act, the ATIP Office carefully monitors the proceedings and associated timelines. Clear deadlines are indicated in record-retrieval letters received by the Office of Primary Interest (OPI). An OPI is the holder of relevant personal information for a privacy request. If a deadline is not met, the ATIP office promptly contacts the OPI to follow up on the status of its response and, when required, escalates the issue to the OPI's immediate supervisor.

Weekly status reports from the CMH ATIP Office are provided to the Vice-President, Corporate Strategy and Government Affairs, indicating all key actions and timelines associated with request processing.

No requests for corrections to personal information were received during the reporting period.

Material Privacy Breaches

The Treasury Board Secretariat (TBS) defines a material privacy breach as one involving "sensitive personal information and could reasonably be expected to cause serious injury or harm to the individual and/or involves a large number of affected individuals." TBS requires government institutions to report material privacy breaches to both TBS and the Privacy Commissioner of Canada.

There were no material privacy breaches during the reporting period and, accordingly, no reports were submitted to TBS or the Privacy Commissioner of Canada.

Privacy Impact Assessments

A privacy impact assessment (PIA) is a tool used to determine whether privacy risks may be present in new or existing initiatives that involve the collecting of personal information for administrative purposes.

No new privacy impact assessments were undertaken by the CMH during the reporting period.

TBS requires government institutions to post summaries of their completed PIAs on their corporate websites. Fulfillment of this requirement is in progress by the CMH.

Public Interest Disclosures

At the discretion of the head of the institution, Paragraph 8(2)(m) of the Privacy Act permits the disclosure of personal information without consent if, upon careful examination, such disclosure is deemed to be in the public interest.

The CMH made one public interest disclosure under Section 8(2)(m) of the Privacy Act. Pursuant to Section 8(5) of the Privacy Act, the CMH notified the Office of the Privacy Commissioner, in advance, of the upcoming limited disclosure of personal information deemed to be in the public interest.

The disclosure related to a harassment complaint investigation carried out in 2021. The head of the institution (interim CEO) carefully considered the public interest involved in disclosure and the privacy issues at stake, and concluded that the public interest clearly outweighed any invasion of privacy that could result from the disclosure.
