

Record of Marriage

On September 19, 1667, was undertaken and solemnized the marriage of Désiré Viger, domestic servant of Mr. Le Moine, son of Nicolas Viger and Robine Fessart, of the Parish of St. Saveur de Rouen [France] with Catherine Moitié, also a domestic servant of Mr. Le Moine, daughter of the late Jacques Moitié, royal sergeant at La Rochelle [France], et Françoise Langevin, of the parish of Ste. Marguerite de la Rochelle. The three banns of marriage were published without opposition. The marriage took place in the presence of Jacques Le Moine, warden of this parish; of Mr. François Ferand, Lieutenant Aide-Major of the Carignan-Salières Regiment; of Michel Messier, a habitant; of René Fezeret; of Pierre Caille, a tailor; of Susane Guillband, widow of Claude Fezeret and cousin of the said Moitié; of Marie LeBer, her daughter; and Genevieve Laisne, all common friends of the said parties, who have declared that they are unable to sign their names.
